

Publication Ethics and Publication Malpractice Statement

The ethics statements of Informacije MIDEM - Journal of Microelectronics, Electronic Components and Materials (ISSN 0352-9045, e-ISSN 2232-6979) are based on guidelines and standards developed by the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE). We expect all parties to commit to these publication ethics. We do not tolerate plagiarism or any other unethical behaviour of any party. Manuscripts that do not meet these standards will be removed.

Publication decisions and Editor's duties

The Editor-in-Chief in assistance with the Associate Editors is responsible for deciding which of the articles submitted to the journal should be published. The Editors may be guided by the policies of the journal's editorial board and constrained by such legal requirements as shall then be in force regarding libel, copyright infringement and plagiarism. The editor may confer with other editors or reviewers in making this decision. The Editors must keep the information pertaining the submitted manuscript confidential and disclose any conflict of interest.

The manuscripts must be evaluated only for their intellectual content without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, religious belief, ethnic origin, citizenship, or political philosophy of the authors.

Reviewer responsibilities

Reviewers must notify the Editor of any conflict of interest and keep the information pertaining the submitted manuscript confidential. Reviewers must evaluate the manuscript only for their intellectual content without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, religious belief, ethnic origin, citizenship, or political philosophy of the authors. The reviews should be conducted objectively. Their views should be written clearly with supporting arguments. Personal criticism is inappropriate.

Reviewers must bring to the attention of the Editor any information that may be reason to reject publication of a manuscript.

Reviewers should identify the relevant published work that has not been cited by the Authors. Any statement that has been previously reported should be accompanied by the relevant citation.

Selected reviewer that feels unqualified to review the manuscript or could not review it promptly should notify the Editor and excuse himself from the review process.

Author responsibilities

At electronic submission, the corresponding author must on behalf of all authors declare and upon request certify that their manuscripts are their original work and have not been published elsewhere. They must also declare and upon request certify that the manuscript is not currently under review elsewhere.

Underlying data should be represented accurately in the paper. A paper should contain sufficient detail and references to permit others to replicate the work. Fraudulent or knowingly inaccurate statements constitute unethical behaviour and are unacceptable.

The work, words or statements of others should be appropriately cited or quoted. Proper acknowledgment of the work of others must always be given. Authorship should be limited to those who have made a significant contribution to the conception, design, execution, or interpretation of the reported study. All those who have made significant contributions should be listed as co-authors. The corresponding author should ensure that all co-authors have seen and approved the final version of the paper and have agreed to its submission for publication.

Authors must report any errors they discover in their manuscript to the Editor.

Sanctions

In the event that there are documented violations of any of the above mentioned policies in any journal, regardless of whether or not the violations occurred in Informacije MIDEM, the following sanctions will be applied:

- Immediate rejection of the infringing manuscript.
- Immediate rejection of every other manuscript submitted to Informacije MIDEM by any of the authors of the infringing manuscript.
- Prohibition against all of the authors for any new submissions to Informacije MIDEM, either individually or in combination with other authors of the infringing manuscript, as well as in combination with any other authors. This prohibition will be imposed for a minimum of 36 months.

In cases where the violations of the above policies are found to be particularly egregious, the publisher reserves the right to impose additional sanctions beyond those described above.
